Welcome From Our Chairman

Welcome to Probus Parish Players thirteenth production... "Babes In The Wood"

Some would say the number thirteen was unlucky, not for us though, as we have a hard working and dedicated Committee and Production Team who have worked tirelessly through out the year to bring this wonderful pantomime to life, we hope you enjoy it as much as we have done producing it.

This year there are few new faces, some new to the players and others who have come through from the chorus to the main cast.

With Andrew Kennedy our esteemed director for the second year running you can be assured of the very best from the cast, Andrew is turning out to be very accomplished at interpreting a script and getting what he wants out of the cast.

Our pantomime relies on many volunteers who give their time and energy freely for which we are extremely grateful! Also thanks must go to all users of the Village Hall who rearrange their activities to accommodate us.

I would like to thank all Sponsors and Advertisers who have supported this production.

All that remains is for me to ask you to sit back and enjoy the show (don't forget to Boo & Cheer!) And maybe we will see you for a drink in the bar after the show where you can meet some of the cast.

Alan Nicholls

Chairman

P.S We are always looking for people with fresh ideas or maybe you would like to tread the boards, why not come to our A.G.M or even turn up for our next pantomime auditions. We will keep you posted as to what's on in The Probus News.

Our future at your fingertips!

There are big changes happening at Cornwall College St Austell...

From September, we began teaching at the former Imerys HQ on Tregonissey Road with its outstanding views over St Austell to the sea.

The new college campus site will offer students of St Austell and the surrounding area one of the best learning environments in the county.

The facilities in phase 1 include:

- NEW hair and beauty salons
- NEW silver service restaurant
- NEW adult studies centre
- The newest performing arts facility in the South West...The Keay
- And so much more

This three year development will total £20 million and will give St Austell a college to be proud of, providing courses for students of all ages, full or part-time, vocational or academic, all the way to Higher Education.

Cornwall College – altogether a better future!

The Directors Bit

Hi! This is the part of the programme where I am supposed to write something interesting, humorous, passionate, exhilarating and sincere....but I can't, so I've written this instead.

Firstly I'd like to say a big thank you for spending your hard earned cash on coming to see a moment of theatre history. This piece of dramatic art has been collaborated throughout the last few hard winter months by the many names you will see printed in this panto souvenir. Their dedication and enthusiasm has shone through, and without them you would not be here reading this now.

Finally I'd like to say.....enjoy the show and buy a raffle ticket.

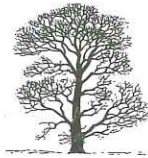

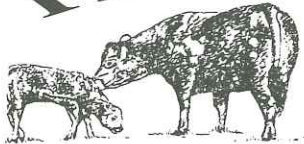

Thanks

Andrew Kennedy

the Cast and Crew*

Ian Tofts joins the Cast for the first time this year although he is no stranger to the stage playing in a band. Some may know him as the Legal Beagle on a local Radio Station. Ian plays the part of Nurse Nitwit who is a silly old fuss pot who has no control over her young charges - or herself! She thinks she is a cut above the rest and even fancies her chances with the Sheriff.

The Comedy Duo

Julie needs no introduction as she has been a regular with the Players since our initial Production - Cinderella in 1992. This year she teams up with a new partner in Comedy -going for the younger model! She plays the part of Mole.

Julie is Sponsored by Sylvia and John Bishop and Probus News Midlands (Arts) Correspondent

This is Devon's Sixth Panto and he is delighted to be teaming up with an 'old' pro. He started his acting as a Jelly Baby and has played many roles along the way - Smolder, the Dragon and the all singing Goose last year. This year he plays the part of Wart

Mole and Wart are a Pair of Lovable

Buffoons, Soppy Soldiers in the service of the Sheriff providing plenty of slapstick fun and audience participation

Devon is Sponsored by Brian and Gloria Annear

A Vote of Thanks from the Vice Chair

On behalf of all the cast and crew I would like to give my thanks to our esteemed director Andrew Kennedy. This has been Andrew's second chance to direct and we were all delighted to have him onboard again this year. Andrew has brought the fun into our panto at rehearsals as well as on stage. We all look forward to working with him again next year!!!!

We are always glad to have any new members on our team, whether on stage or behind the scenes we have a great time, so why not come and join the fun. Speak to any of our team and find out more....

Pete returns to tread the Boards again this year after a stint behind the scenes with the Stage Crew - although he hasn't been able to resist the odd cameo role. Do you recall Jack looking for his Buttercup after a cyclone? Pete is playing the part of the Sheriff of Nottingham - a man we all love to hate. The vilest villain ever to raise a boo and hiss.

The Panto in Brief

A memorable collection of characters brings this classic and enjoyable tale vividly to life. The Wicked Sheriff of Nottingham is planning Horrid deeds, robbing the poor and poisoning his niece and nephew, the Babes.

However Robin Hood and his Band of Merry Men have other plans. Can they rescue Maid Marian and the Babes before the Wicked Nausea Nightshade interferes?

Madcap Nurse Night Wit and the slapstick Duo, Mole and Wart will have you rolling in the aisles on their trip through Sherwood Forest.

Jess returns for her Second Main Role, last year playing the Good Fairy Harmony, this year playing the Evil Nausea Nightshade. She summons up an evil demon which is a far cry from Priscilla the Goose last year. One extreme to another! - here she teams up with the Sheriff of Nottingham to do his terrible deeds.
