WELCOME
From the Chairman of Probus Parish Players

Welcome to this year's production of "Sinbad the Sailor." Once again I would like to thank the cast and production team for all their efforts with this year's show.

A great deal of time & effort goes into each production that we create and, hopefully, we come up with something different each year. Sheila Pascoe has directed this year's production with her usual perfection & professionalism, thanks Sheila.

As you will see on arriving, this year, with the help of Carrick District Council, we have designed & built portable, raised seating. With this in mind, a personal thanks for the endless time, which everyone has put in from last year in trying to provide a better view for all.

Thank you, again, for supporting us because, without the community, we could not provide a show at all. So, sit back in your new seats and enjoy yourselves.

Ray Schofield

It's January and it's time for Probus Parish Pantomime.
All your favourite friends are here
to entertain again this year.
A gallant hero, bold and strong;
and, to help the plot along,
an evil villain, who, in vain,
will try his wicked way to gain.
(But, his badness he will rue if only you will loudly boo.)
A magic island, like a jewel.
A comic lead, to play the fool.
A Princess and an island girl,
with eyes that glow and hair a-curl.
A cunning Priestess and her mate
who'd like to serve them on a plate.
And, though she's last, well, all the same,
let's not forget the dazzling Dame.
So put your feet up, shout and cheer,
'cos Probus Pantomime is here!

Sheila Pascoe
Director

MEET THE PLAYERS

PETE BELAND was an Ugly Sister in "Cinderella", the Dame in "Dick Whittington" and "Sleeping Beauty" & the wicked Abanazar in "Aladdin". Now he woz 'ere!

TIM SCHOFIELD made his debut as Mr Mussle in "Dick Whittington" followed by One Long Pong in "Aladdin" and "Shout" in "Sleeping Beauty" & now continues in his brother, Richard's footsteps as the juvenile lead.

FRANCES du PILLE - from chorus girl in "Cinderella" & "Dick Whittington" to Aladdin, Prince Valiant and now a dashing and daring Sinbad the Sailor. A true prince(ss) among principle boys.

JANET BOGEN appeared in a minor role in "Cinderella" and was that really nasty witch in "Sleeping Beauty" and now shows her versatility by playing the fool.

SUE HEYWARD made her first appearance in "Sleeping Beauty" as Queen Semolina and knocked the audience sideways with her powerful singing. This is the first time the Dame has been played by a dame in one of our productions.

JON ARNOLD was Captain of the Saucy Sue in "Dick Whittington", the Emperor in Aladdin (Who can forget that duet with the then Rector?) and King Cedric in "Sleeping Beauty". This time he's playing the evil Sorcerer, so don't be afraid to hiss & boo!

PAUL DURHAM joined the players for the chorus of "Sleeping Beauty" and now makes his debut in a speaking part.

KATIE RUNDLE was the cute cat in "Dick Whittington", a fairy in "Sleeping Beauty" and now a fully fledged Princess.

MEET THE PLAYERS

ANDREW KENNEDY has appeared in every production, in the chorus, as a footman & guard and as a medicine peddler in "Aladdin". Just make sure he doesn't try to eat you today!

LISA BELAND - after appearing in the chorus and as a dancer, in all previous productions, Lisa makes her first appearance as a principle as the beautiful native girl, Talida.

JENNY TOWNSEND, returning as a "Baddie," was the Wicked Stepmother in "Cinderella", Mrs Fitzwarren in "Dick Whittington" and the gormless Winnie Wong in "Aladdin."

JULIE KENNEDY has shown her versatility each year, from the Good Fairy in "Cinderella", the tough Harem Keeper in "Dick Whittington", Winnie's man-mad sister, Minnie, in "Aladdin" and the slightly eccentric Chamberlain in "Sleeping Beauty" to the evil Priestess of the Shrine of Love this year.

LOUISE TOWNSEND has appeared in the chorus and dancing in "Cinderella", "Dick Whittington" & "Sleeping Beauty" and now makes her speaking debut as an ex-member of the Caliph's harem.

JANE JACKSON joined the players for the chorus of "Sleeping Beauty" and she, too, makes her speaking debut as an ex-member of the Caliph's harem.

REBECCA TORR may be the youngest principle in our story but she is definitely a future leading lady to watch out for. She has sung & danced with Dick Whittington, Aladdin & the Sleeping Beauty.
