Welcome from our Chairman

Welcome to the Probus Parish Players production of 'The Wonderful Story of Mother Goose'.

Believe it or not, this is our twelfth pantomime and one that I am very proud to be a part of, because we have an excellent, hard working and devoted Committee who have worked tirelessly throughout the year to bring you this production.

Of course, it would not be possible without the cast and chorus. There are some familiar faces and some you will not have seen on stage before, who over the last five months have spent many hours repeating line after line, singing and dancing until they know their parts off by heart - a fantastic effort by one and all.

I would however like to single out one individual in particular for praise, Andrew Kennedy. Andrew has performed in all our pantomimes, this year not only is he playing the part of Billy, he has also taken on the role of Director for the very first time (I hope not the last) and what a magnificent job he has done. Well done and thank you Andrew!!

I must also thank all those who have in one form or another supported the Players over the last year, for without them it would be very difficult to put on a pantomime at all. Your support is very much appreciated. Thank you very much!!

Now all that remains for me to say is Sit Back, enjoy the pantomime and let us entertain you with the fascinating tale of 'Mother Goose' oh and don't forget to Boo and Cheer - the louder the better.

Finally, why not come and join us in the Bar afterwards for an after show drink and meet some of the cast.

THE DIRECTORS BIT

Welcome back to Probus Parish Players. It's been two years since we last graced the dizzy heights of the village hall stage with The Real Wizard of Oz. But that doesn't mean we've been idly sitting back watching Corrie and stuffing our faces, oh no! The expertise of the established members combined with the energy of the new players has proved a dynamic partnership. But that's enough about the WI, back to Mother Goose!

I am very proud of the cast and crew that I have had the privilege to work with on this production. They have made my job as a first-time director so much easier than I anticipated.

Now prepare yourselves to be whisked away to another time (about ten minutes since you last checked your watch) to be amazed, astounded, shocked... distraught! Whichever! Most of all enjoy yourselves and have a great 2004. Watch out for the deliberate error - let me know if you spot it!!

Thanks for your support.

Andrew Kennedy

As well as Director of our Pantomime, Andrew is also rehearsing for Jesus Christ Superstar which is being performed in Newquay in April. In between he finds time to work for St Austell Brewery.

He is playing the part of Billy Goose, who can only be described as dippy but fun. His favourite part and he has had many to choose from as he has been in every production we have put on, was Crunchbones, the Witch Doctor in 'Sinbad the Sailor'. He aspires to playing a lead role in a musical at a major venue to a capacity audience. Watch this space!!!

When asked about his most embarrassing moment he replied 'Where do I start.....'- what more can we say. Should he win the lottery, he would buy a house in Probus, as this is the only way he'll be able to afford one!

Mike lives in Probus and has two young Children. He lives life in the fast lane and enjoys Rally Driving. This is his first Panto ever and boy (or should we say girl) did he pick a big role. He plays the part of the 'glamorous' Mother Goose. He loves the pretty frocks and can't wait to strut his stuff. Mike would have loved the chance to have taken Marilyn Monroe to dinner to show her how glamorous a woman can be!!! (In your Dreams - editor). Should he win the Lottery he would have Breast Implants and hormone treatment as he has enjoyed the role so much! On a more serious note, Mike would love to win the World Rally Championship dressed as Bet Lynch (is that serious?)

Julie needs more hours in a day. She works at Playschool, Probus Community School and After School Club - Children Children Everywhere. Julie has been involved in every Panto - this is our twelve outing and this year is playing 'Onions' who in her own words he is 'Thick as Two Short Planks'. She enjoys the Comedy part but her favourite role was Morgana in King Arthur - (Boy was she scary-edit)as the costume was fab.

One of her highlights was when PPP won the Calor Gas Award for Best Panto for Dick Whittington. Julie would like to take an unlikely duo to Dinner - gorgeous Pierce Brosnan and funny Dawn French - what a combination. In the unlikely event of her numbers coming up, after a stiff drink or three, she would buy a House and go on a Cruise (perhaps with Pierce?).

For the future, she has one aspiration - SANITY - no chance!

Reigning Miss Cornwall, Natalie has been with PPP for three years - This year she is playing Discord, the oooooohhh soooo evil fairy. Natalie is enjoying this role as it gives her an outlet to vent her anger and frustrations. Fitting into her busy schedule, she works for Social Services and has a passion for horse riding(edit - don't wear your costume to the Stables, what will the Horses say!!)

Like so many others her ideal date would be Johnny Wilkinson, can't understand why? She says it is because she likes Rugby, but looks and physique might have something to do with it.

Horsepower is important to Natalie, as if she won the lottery she would buy an Audi TT and a Gelding(thats a horse). For the future she wants to be happy, carry on with Panto and get a good job.

This is Jamie's Third Panto with PPP - His favourite Role was the Tin Man in 'The Real Wizard of Oz', also his most embarrassing when he fell up the stairs during a performance and had to be helped up by a member of the Crew. You may also remember him as the singing Croc in Peter Pan. This year Jamie is playing the part of Clarence Creep and is really enjoying playing the Bad Guy. Given the opportunity he would love to take Dawn French to Dinner as he thinks she is very funny and gorgeous. If he won the Lottery, Jamie would buy himself a Grand Piano and lessons. At present he is working hard as a Nail Technician and hopes to make money in the future from singing or drawing.

Jon is becoming quite the Thespian, not only involved with PPP but also rehearsing for Jesus Christ Superstar with NAODS in which he plays the baddie (surprise surprise). For PPP he is the part of Sage, the slightly smarter (only just) one of the duo, Sage and Onions.

Once again he is 'working' with Julie and those that have seen previous productions will know they make a superb team - although Jon says he is enjoying beating Onions up (is there a law against battery of vegetables-edit?)

Jon has been in all but two productions and his favourite role was Captain Hook as he is the ultimate baddie.

His Hero is Chris Bonnington and would welcome the opportunity to sit down and talk over Dinner and perhaps the odd drink.

This Drink would definitely be required if he won the lottery as he doesn't play!

Jon would like to be able to retire in ten years - perhaps earlier if he bought a lottery ticket.

THE PANTO IN A NUTSHELL

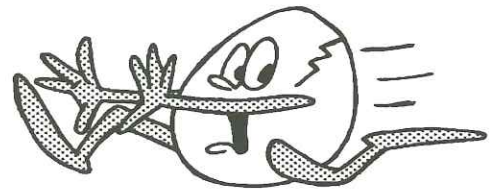

Once upon a time, in a land not far from where you are sitting lived Mother Goose... a homely woman constantly pestered by her wicked landlord. Mother Goose struggled to provide for her children, Jill and Billy, and oooh, they were poor.

One day a magical Memphis goose laying golden eggs knocked on her door, allowing Mother Goose to buy anything she could want. But Mother Goose soon learnt that anything was not everything she desired.

Hannah is a new member to our cast and currently goes to Roseland School. She enjoys all Watersports, in particular Windsurfing and Jet Skiing. Hannah describes herself as a Tom Boy, she is enjoying the challenge of playing her character Jill although a little unsure of the pretty frocks. (What will this do to her street cred?) Whilst in the Guides she was the only person to suffocate the dummy when doing her First Aid badge. She would love to take Johnny Wilkinson to dinner - is it his sporting physique or his personality that attracts? Hannah's ambition is to become a diving instructor in the South of France.

BREAK A LEG !

Q AND A - WHAT DOES [VARICOSE] MEAN NEARBY

This is Devon's fifth Panto but his singing debut - Elvis lives on!! Devon is at the Roseland where he particularly enjoys the rough and tumble of rugby and the noise of his Drum lessons.

This year he is playing Priscilla, the Memphis Goose and has enjoyed the challenge of giving the Goose attitude and character. His favourite role has been Smolder, the Dragon in King Arthur because he liked the energy of the part.

Devon could be described as Mr Accident and bares many scars to prove it. (edit - when we say Break a Leg, don't take it literally please).

Devon would like to go to Dinner with Jason Robinson to get tips about Rugby as he would like to be a professional rugby player when he gets older.

Whilst too young to play, should he win the lottery, he would buy presents for his family(thats me sorted!-edit).

Jessica is currently at Probus C P School and loves the outdoors, particularly Surfing. Jessica is a member of the Probus Youth Theatre, so is no stranger to acting, but this is her first principal role with the Players.

She is playing the part of Harmony, the aaaaaahhhh soo good fairy.

The part and character of Harmony is completely alien to Jessica as she wouldn't describe herself as girly, however one of her aspirations for the future is to be a Bond Girl!!

Surprise surprise, she too would like to go to Dinner with Pierce Brosnan as she is a fan of James Bond (what about Sean Connery, Roger Moore etc etc)

Laura is currently at college, studying 'Health Studies' working towards her ambition of joining the RAF as a Radiographer.

This is Laura's third outing with the players in which she plays the part of Colin. This is her first main role which has been interesting as she is playing a bloke - watch out for the soppy scenes!

Laura has a habit of walking into doors in public so the scenery this year has had to be made extra secure.

She would love to take Darius(edit-Who?)to dinner as she thinks he is just gorgeous.

Should Laura win the lottery she would buy a car, so long as it has four wheels and goes, she doesn't care what it is - imagine going on a date with Darius in a Robin Reliant!

Jenny is a long standing member of PPP having been involved in every production. Her favourite part was gormless Winnie Wong in Aladdin however this year she is fulfilling a dream by playing a Fairy Queen. Jenny's passion is the White Cross Mission of which she is the Administrator. The Charity has rescued 32 children from mental institutions in Romania. She would love to win the lottery so she could buy a Combine Harvester to enable the six houses in Romania to become self sufficient. Should she win, she would sit back and enjoy watching her grand children grow up.
